One person in the family suffered for years from disordered kidneys and also complained a great deal of backache. When this party heard how beneficial Doan's Kidney Pills were in such cases, he procured a supply and their use made him well. Doan's Kidney Pills are entitled to the entire credit for this cure as no other remedy was used."

STRANGEST OF ALL ELECTION PLATFORMS

Cadiz, Ky., April 16.—Without designating by what party he hopes to be nominated, Max Hanberry, an attorney of this place, has announced his candidacy for governor of Kentucky on a strange platform.

Among the "principles" for which he stands, as announced in his platform, are the giving of "every yellow dog Democrat a lucrative office," the pensioning of all "white Republicans," giving each married woman a forty horse-power automobile, two hats each season, and a half of a ton of chewing gum annually, while he would give each negro a watermelon patch, a mule and fish pond with imported labor to handle his mule and cultivate his melons.

He concludes his announcement with:

"So with some impatience, not on my account, but on account of the 'dear people' I await my inaugural."

"MAX HANBERRY."
